

Daimler Mobility Services

Mercedes pay S.A

IT System Administrator (m/f)
Luxembourg
Immediate hire

WHO ARE WE?

Mercedes pay S.A. is a young, innovative start-up in the field of mobile/online payment. Our goal is to establish the new standard for payment processes. 'Mercedes pay' is the electronic payment system for services provided by the Daimler Group. It is a fundamental component of Daimler's mobility and digitalization strategy. As a part of the Daimler group, we are ambitious to make the products and services that Daimler offers even more appealing with the new payment system.

For the European/worldwide market roll-out, we are looking for creative IT System Administrator who is passionate about building products that customers love.

WHAT DO WE OFFER?

- You are contributing to the future of a fast growing and sustainable company
- You are able to work with a young team of highly motivated and skilled top performers
- You can enjoy working in an open environment with high flexibility and agility
- You will be rewarded with an attractive remuneration package
- You can enjoy attractive additional benefits such as team events, company pension

YOUR ROLE:

- Design and develop IT-Infrastructure for our innovative payment solution
- Administrate the Mercedes pay platform (Server, clients, network, firewall)
- Responsible for operations management including system monitoring and reporting, defining and monitor quality gates, performance and failure analysis as well as optimization of the platform
- Organize the user help desk and the technical support
- Soft- and hardware procurement
- Cooperate with external service providers

OUR REQUIREMENTS:

- You have more than 4 years of working experience in related field
- You possess outstanding knowledge in Linux/Unix OS, Virtualization (Xen), Databases, Networking and Network Security Structured problem solver and team player
- You have strong analytical, problem solving, and communication skills
- English language skills mandatory, German preferred

This is a full-time job. We particularly welcome applications from disabled persons. Please apply online via www.daimler.com/career (Reference Number P0137V002).